Exactech to Host Financial Analyst Meetings at AAOS, Present at Orthopaedics Financial Conference

Orthopaedic firm to highlight shoulder, hip and knee implant products at exhibit during American Academy of Orthopaedic Surgeons Annual Meeting

GAINESVILLE, Fla. -- March 3, 2008 -- Exactech, Inc. (Nasdaq: EXAC), a developer and producer of bone and joint restoration products for hip, knee, shoulder, spine and biologic materials, today announced it will host financial analyst meetings in conjunction with the company's display for surgeons during the American Academy of Orthopaedic Surgeons (AAOS) Annual Meeting in San Francisco March 5 through March 7.

At AAOS Exactech will unveil a variety of new medical education technologies. An interactive animation guides surgeons through the Equinox® reverse shoulder system's innovative surgical technique. A computer simulation program demonstrates the Novation® hip system's excellent range-of-motion and a navigation laboratory provides hands-on experience and training in the latest computer-assisted surgical techniques. Live surgical videos highlight benefits of Exactech biologic materials and the InterSpace® bone cement.

New products and instrumentation including the Equinox® reverse shoulder, the Novation Crown Cup™ and Ceramic AHS™ acetabular systems, the Novation® Splined RDD hip stem, enhancements to the Optetrak® knee system, and a new bone cement mixing system will be demonstrated at product kiosks and in the exhibit's two surgical skills workshops. Surgeons and other technical experts will be available to discuss the design rationales and clinical outcomes associated with Exactech products.

Prior to AAOS, Exactech will make a presentation to investment community analysts on March 4 at the Canaccord Adams' Small-Cap Orthopedic Conference, also held in San Francisco. The conference features 40 private and public small cap orthopaedic companies. Exactech Chairman and CEO Dr. William Petty will deliver the presentation, which will be available via webcast at <http://www.newswire.ca/en/webcast/viewEvent.cgi?eventID=2186580>.
